Learn more about the Chácara das Pedras neighborhood:

Chácara das Pedras, one of the noblest neighborhoods of Porto Alegre, has its roots in the late nineteenth century. Despite its first occupations, the region remained sparsely inhabited until the middle of the twentieth century.

In 1959, Chácara das Pedras was officially recognized as a neighborhood and, in the following decades, it experienced significant growth, with the construction of residences and the appreciation of real estate. The strategic location, close to renowned universities such as PUC and Unisinos, and the emergence of Shopping Iguatemi in 1983, further boosted the development of the neighborhood.

Currently, Chácara das Pedras is a predominantly residential neighborhood, with a quiet and safe atmosphere. It has a diversified commerce, with many shops and services installed in old residences, which gives the neighborhood a unique charm. The quality of life, the proximity to green areas and the real estate appreciation are the main attractions for those looking to live or invest in the region. In addition, Chácara das Pedras offers easy access to other parts of the city, making it an excellent option for those looking for comfort and practicality.
