Learn more about the Cidade Baixa neighborhood:

The Cidade Baixa neighborhood is one of the most iconic neighborhoods in Porto Alegre and has a history that dates back to the nineteenth century. Initially known as "Areal da Baronesa", the region was a place of passage for drovers and later sheltered freed blacks and Italian immigrants. Over the years, the Lesser Town has transformed into a cultural and bohemian center, with a unique identity marked by diversity and bustling nightlife.

Currently, the Lower City is a neighborhood that combines the charm of the past with the modernity of the present. Its tree-lined streets, historic buildings, and a variety of shops and services attract residents in search of vibrant urban living. The region offers a complete infrastructure, with easy access to public transportation, schools, hospitals, and green areas. In addition, the proximity to the city center and the ease of travel to other regions of Porto Alegre are great attractions.

For those looking to invest in real estate, the Lower City has a diversified market, with options ranging from old apartments with renovation potential to new properties in modern developments. The real estate appreciation in the region has been constant, driven by the demand for real estate in neighborhoods with good location and infrastructure.
