ABOUT THE AREA

Kingston, the vibrant capital of Jamaica, pulsates with energy and history. Nestled on Jamaica's southeast coast, it's a city where the rhythm of reggae fills the air, and the scent of jerk chicken mingles with sea salt spray. Kingston boasts a rich heritage, its streets lined with colonial architecture and bustling markets overflowing with fresh produce and colorful crafts.

Beyond its historical charm, Kingston is a cultural powerhouse. It's the birthplace of reggae music, where legends like Bob Marley left their mark. Live music spills from street corners and nightclubs, while art galleries showcase the vibrant creativity of local artists. The city also offers a glimpse into Jamaica's natural beauty, with its proximity to the Blue and John Crow Mountains National Park and stunning beaches like Hellshire, perfect for soaking up the Caribbean sun.
