Designed for serenity, inspired by nature - ALDEIA DO PINHAL VILLAS is a new residential development featuring architecturally designed modern villas. Homes crafted to embrace the benefits of their prime location in one of Portugal's most iconic coastlines, in the heart of the Silver Coast.

The villas location next to Salir do Porto Beach pays homage to the Portuguese peoples deep connection to coastal pine forests, in villages where cherished family traditions have taken place under the shade of maritime pines for centuries. From walks in nature to picnics, picking pine cones and white berries called "camarinhas", witnessing children's games or harvesting moss for Christmas nativity scenes.

Lush green landscapes surround the homes and feature natural stone accents that connect your days to nature.

Imagine opening your window to the scent of pine and the gentle call of ocean waves, surrounded by lush greenery and unspoilt nature. Enjoying hiking trails along the coast all year round and marvelling at Portugals highest dunes every time you walk to the beach.

With São Martinho do Porto Bay just down the road, Aldeia do Pinhal is a peaceful retreat from the bustle of everyday life. Here, every moment is an opportunity to be part of an authentic Portuguese lifestyle, filled with the soothing smells, sights and sounds of the sea and forest.

Aldeia do Pinhal is a place to enjoy slow living and the tranquillity of nature. To fill your lungs with the crisp Atlantic breeze and your soul with the promise of another day in this dream home.

The nearby beach, village farmers market and cafés add to the authentic village experience. After your morning shopping and a Portuguese coffee, you can head to the beach for a dip in the calm bay waters or stretch your legs with a hike along Salir do Portos sea-facing hills.

The sea and tradition at your doorstep! Embrace a lifestyle rich in coastal traditions and be part of a welcoming seafront community. Here, age-old customs connected to the forest and the sea are part of your daily life.
