ABOUT THE AREA

Nabq Bay is a picturesque bay located on the Red Sea coast, just north of Sharm El Sheikh. Known for its stunning natural beauty and diverse marine life, Nabq Bay is a popular destination for nature lovers and water sports enthusiasts.

The bay is home to the Nabq Protected Area, a nature reserve that encompasses a vast expanse of desert, mangroves, and coral reefs. Visitors can explore the reserve on guided tours, hike through the desert, or simply relax on the pristine beaches.

Nabq Bay offers excellent opportunities for snorkeling and diving, with vibrant coral reefs teeming with colorful fish, turtles, and other marine creatures. The clear waters provide excellent visibility for underwater exploration.

The bay is also a popular spot for windsurfing and kitesurfing, with consistent winds and ideal conditions for these water sports. Visitors can rent equipment and take lessons from experienced instructors.
