Since the 1970s the Egyptian population has been growing more and more each day, the country took drastic steps to help accommodate the growing population. With that in mind, the country introduced a number of new neighborhoods and areas in Cairo. In the year 2000, New Cairo City was established in the West of Cairo.

New Cairo city is sprawled across 85,000 acres of land and in 2016 the country released a decree adding 15,000 acres of land to the New Cairo city. The area is split into a number of neighborhoods, each containing an array of high end compounds and projects.

As previously mentioned, life in New Cairo city has a multitude of perks and advantages. Such as having immediate access to an array of important destinations:

American University in Cairo Downtown Katameya Cairo Festival City Wadi Degla Club New Cairo Park Al Ahly Sports Club Police Academy
