Kusadasi has a typical Mediterranean climate with hot summers and mild winters, providing a long tourism season. The city is bathed in sunshine for 300 days of the year. Kusadasi has a residential population of 50,000 rising to over half a million during the summer when the large resort fills with tourists making investing in this world famous resort a good idea as properties can enjoy bumper rental periods. Kusadasi caters to tourists of all nationalities arriving by land air and sea, and as the port for cruise ship passengers heading to Ephesus.

Old houses near the seafront, some of them converted to bars and cafes, are the remnants of old Kusadasi, which has become a modern-European looking town. The hills behind are built up with big stunning 4 and 5 star hotels and blocks of holiday apartments.

Numerous white sandy beaches with warm & clear waters, providing a peaceful atmosphere, allow a great variety of water and beach facilities. Windsurfing, water skiing, sailing and beach volleyball are only a few choices for the lovers of active life. After sunbathing restfully during the day, the city awaits a superb sunset. As the sun sets, the attractive cafes and restaurants through the palm-lined boulevard, get busier. It is a great delight to watch the comings and goings of the yachts and ships with stunning panoramic views of the sunset, on a pre-drink before the dinner. The restaurants serve a variety of fresh seafood and local and imported foods, offer a delicious meal in Kusadasi.
