You enter the property itself and walk into a large open plan living room, with high ceilings. The current owners have created a lovely dining area to the left of the living area and then a relaxing lounge area around an inviting log burner that is in the far-right corner, it is beautiful. There are glass sliding doors that take you out to a terrace that overlooks the private pool and gardens, to the right of the terrace is a room that the owners use as an office. Moving back inside and to the left of the living area is a good size kitchen that wraps around two walls providing ample space for cooking when you have family or friends round for dinner, there is a door at the far end that provides access out to the garden. The master bedroom is next and is the largest of the three bedrooms and benefits from having its own bathroom. Moving across the living area and to the right of the property, you have two decent size bedrooms and a family bathroom for your guests or family when they are visiting. If you walk out of the main door and walk around the property you have a car port for your car, followed by an outdoor storage area, continuing to walk around the villa to the back you then have a beautiful private pool and a BBQ area for entertaining, all of this sits within a good size plot of approximately 500m². There are steps on the side of the villa that take you up to the solarium with gorgeous views across the countryside and to the hills in the distance, there is also a large room on this level that could be used as an additional bedroom, office or an artist room, the choice is yours!
