ABOUT THE AREA

There is a scenic suburb situated on the hillsides of Pretoria East in the ever-bustling Gauteng Province. This places it conveniently close to the urban hub of Johannesburg and the OR Tambo International Airport, which is only some 65 kilometres away. It shares a border with Lombardy Estate and a significant part of this suburb lies on Graham Road.

The area is characterised by lush vegetation of Fever, Rock Fig and Acacia trees, which give the landscape a breath-taking quality of natural beauty. The homes here are mostly opulent and tasteful, infusing the entire area with an air of luxury. This promises visitors a real treat as they escape the 'real world' and immerse themselves in the beauty of Pretoria.

Despite being nestled within the green landscapes of Pretoria, there is actually conveniently close to all of the necessary facilities and amenities, as well as plenty of extras; both tourist attractions and natural retreats. Golf enthusiasts are about 5 kilometres from the Silver Lakes and the Woodhill golf and country clubs.

There are a number of malls within there's immediate proximity too. These include the Hazeldean, The Grove, and Menlyn shopping centres. Loftus Versveld, the home of many exciting matches, is some 12 kilometres away and the Pioneer Open Air Museum is only 8 kilometres from the heart of there.
