Description

This stunning Las Galeras Villa is nestled at the peninsula of Samana

The Las Galeras Villa offers a private and luxurious retreat away from the hustle and bustle. With nearly 360-degree views that span from the beach to volcanic mountains and lush rainforest, you're surrounded by untouched beauty at every turn. From the villa, you may even catch glimpses of humpback whales breaching in the distance during whale season—a truly magical sight.

This is a unique Las Galeras Villa where exclusivity meets natural beauty, making it the perfect escape for those who seek serenity, comfort, and privacy. The villa's architecture harmonizes with its tropical surroundings, blending seamlessly with the landscape, while the infinity pool offers breathtaking views that stretch out to the ocean. With 5 bedrooms and 5.5 bathrooms, there is ample space to unwind, and the villa is designed to provide both intimate spaces, open areas for reuniting with loved ones, and large social gatherings.

The large gardens are dotted with fruit-bearing trees like mango, avocado, guanabana, and coconut palms, and, depending on the seasons, provide fresh produce straight from nature.

Privacy is a defining feature of the Las Galeras Villa.

It's perfect for those who prefer a quiet, undisturbed escape, away from touristy spots and crowded beaches.

Beyond the villa, Samana offers plenty of adventure and exploration. Visit the enchanting El Limon Waterfall for a memorable hike, explore the mysterious caves of Los Haitises National Park, or take a boat to Cayo Levantado. This region is also famous for whale watching.

This private estate on Playa Colorada is truly a hidden gem for those who appreciate nature's raw beauty and cultural authenticity.
