ABOUT THE AREA

Split, Croatia's second-largest city, is a vibrant hub on the Dalmatian Coast, known for its stunning Roman ruins, beautiful beaches, and lively atmosphere. The city's historical heart is Diocletian's Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, built in the 4th century AD by the Roman Emperor Diocletian. This impressive complex, with its imposing walls, intricate architecture, and bustling cellars, forms the core of Split's Old Town.

Beyond the historical center, Split offers a wealth of modern attractions. The Riva, a bustling waterfront promenade lined with cafes, restaurants, and shops, is the city's social hub. From here, visitors can enjoy stunning views of the Adriatic Sea, watch the boats come and go, and soak up the Mediterranean atmosphere.

Split is also a gateway to the beautiful islands of the Dalmatian archipelago. Ferries and catamarans regularly depart from the city's harbor, offering easy access to popular destinations such as Hvar, Brač, and Vis. These islands are known for their pristine beaches, secluded coves, and charming villages, offering a perfect escape from the city bustle.

The nearest airport to Split is Split Airport (SPU), also known as Resnik Airport. It's conveniently located just 25 kilometers (16 miles) from the city center, making it easily accessible by bus, taxi, or private transfer.
