Have you watched the video yet? - Imagine a place where calm reigns, surrounded by trees and mountains, where the trickling of water can be heard, plus the chirping of birds and a few herds in the distance, which we can sometimes guess by the sound of their bells. And on this place, a first barn at the bottom of the slope followed by a second higher up.

What a beautiful place, how good is this location. This ideal really does exist, to accommodate a family, friendly, professional project, after renovation of course/

Located in the commune of Arbeost, Haute-Vallee de l'Ouzom in the Val d'Azun, this beautiful complex offers an exceptional service of 2 barns to renovate on a single plot of land.

Both located Pe de Lastoues on more than one and a half hectares of land, they overlook the Bourrinquets district, popular in particular for the calm that reigns there.

They are accessible on foot in a few moments from the Bourrinquets district, by a communal path.

A panoramic view surrounds this space, located at an altitude of 750m, and its 15,961m2 of land just a shade under 1.6 Hectares.

The department of Hautes-Pyrenees is the southern-most department of the Midi Pyrenees region, its capital being the beautiful town of Tarbes. The department has a very interesting geography as two small sections belonging geographically to Aquitaine are administratively part of the Hautes-Pyrenees.

The department is split into two very different landscapes: mountains to the south covering half of the department, valleys to the north where the majority of the towns and villages are.

The economy of the department is mainly agricultural and tourism. Inside Midi Pyrenees, smaller areas have traditional names such as the Comminges (east of Toulouse) or the famous Gascony.

Hautes-Pyrenees is a very nice area to settle and one area to look out for (not very well known) is the Baronnie, a set of 30 villages which decided to preserve their rural traditions. An unspoilt area, they represent the rural idyll for anybody in search for absolute peace, authenticity and rest.
