Description:

Enter this majestic classic estate, which dates back to the mid-20th century, preserving all the charm and elegance of the Madrid of yesteryear. From its privileged location, it offers impressive views that transport you to the living history of the city. This spacious 150 m² apartment welcomes you with a large living-dining room, which merges harmoniously with a designer kitchen, highlighted by an imposing central island. Classic details, such as antique moldings, have been carefully preserved, giving a unique charm to every corner. Light floods the space through the large windows, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. In the sleeping area, three double bedrooms offer a quiet refuge, all of them exterior and with access to a Castilian-style balcony that adds a touch of romanticism. The master suite stands out for its generous storage capacity, thanks to exquisite interior carpentry. The bathrooms, covered in porcelain and equipped with built-in taps and an indirect lighting system, offer an oasis of relaxation and comfort. In addition, this residence has all the modern comforts: ducted air conditioning and underfloor heating using an aerothermal system, guaranteeing an optimal environment throughout the year. As for the outdoors, being in the heart of Madrid, you will have a wide variety of shops, renowned restaurants and leisure areas at your fingertips, to fully enjoy everything the city has to offer.
