Description:

A fantastic 4-bedroom property just outside of the town of Charroux and set in an extremely quiet hamlet with no through traffic. Peace and tranquillity assured. The property is extremely comfortable and has retained a lot of its original character. There is even an ensuite bedroom on the ground floor for anyone with mobility issues. Set within over 4.5 acres of land and with lovely country views. The land is easily maintained as the current owners have kept some of the garden formal and the other part as an ecological meadow to attract insects and wildlife with pathways cut through the meadow. Alternatively, the land lends itself to someone with horses and there is even an outbuilding previously used as a stable. On a hot summer's day, the bonus is the 8m x 4m swimming pool where one can chill out. The current owner has replaced the roof himself about 4 years and there is a useful barn/workshop attached to the rear of the property with a solid concrete floor offering space to park a camping car if required.

In brief a rare property on the market with character and fabulous outside space and country views.
