Description:

REDUCED in price - Authentic 17th Century building in the heart of nature. Nestled in a green and preserved setting, this superb 17th-century building, in good condition, combines old-world charm with modern comfort. With its 260 m2 of living space, this characterful house offers 6 spacious bedrooms, ideal for a large family, a second home, or a bed and breakfast project.

You will be charmed by its rustic, authentic feel: exposed stone, period beams, and a majestic medieval fireplace.

The adjoining land, fully planted with flowers and fruit trees, with a natural spring and a well, is a true haven of peace.

The property also has outbuildings, a carport, and benefits from a geothermal heating system and solar panels, guaranteeing optimal comfort all year round and significant energy savings.

Quality insulation and a peaceful setting make this property carefully restored with respect for noble materials and architectural heritage.

A sure favourite.

The department of Manche is in Lower Normandy and is bordered with Calvados, Orne, Mayenne and Ille-et-Vilaine. The English Channel in the west, north and north-west coastlines makes getting here to its many ports very easy from the UK. There is also an airport in Caen and many others are easily accessible in the surrounding regions such as Rennes airport.

History is all over the department through its museums and heritage, discovering the local traditions and culture as well as Chateaux, religious monuments, water mills, maritime sites and gardens is easy to do. The biggest 'must-do' is a visit to Mont Saint Michel.

Tourism plays a major role in the economy of the department which is fine because there is so much to see and do.
