Plaka is a gorgeous little traditional fishing village just 5 kms along the coast road from Elounda. There is a lovely small shingle beach and in addition to the local bars cafes and shops, there is a good choice of excellent fish tavernas in the village. The former Venetian fortress and leper colony of Spinalonga is a short boat ride away, attracting many visitors from around the world. In recent years the best selling book The Island has further increased the interest in the area. Elounda nearby is a cosmopolitan resort area with a large choice of restaurants, tavernas, bars, shops, banks and some of the best luxury hotels in the world. There is also a pretty beach and delightful harbour area. The international airport at Heraklion is within a one hour drive.
