Description:

In an exclusive panoramic position over the hills of Monferrato, in the province of Alessandria, there is this stunning luxury estate with a wonderful view of the entire surroundings. Much appreciated by local customers, as well as by the international public, it consists of a beautiful main villa, to which the second body has been added, which features some elegant rooms for small and large events, meetings and ceremonies, as well as numerous bedrooms and a typical restaurant. The latter is connected to the main villa through an underground passage that also leads to two large basement cellars, also ideal for use as meeting rooms. This fantastic estate also features a big panoramic swimming pool, equipped with a sunbathing area and changing rooms. The outdoor area also features a charming bar area and a large outdoor parking area, as well as a big private park that extends for 200,000 square meters and offers enough space for a second fantastic swimming pool. The interiors of this luxury estate include big halls for events and twenty-four bedrooms, including six suites with exclusive access to the swimming pool through private terraces. The first floor of the main villais also home to a cozy restaurant, characterized by large windows that offer breathtaking views of the Monferrato hills and overlook a magnificent outdoor terrace.
