The Casa: Embracing Modernity in a Lush Oasis

The Casa, the primary residence, exudes a characterful charm with its unique earth brick and cedar weatherboard construction. Step inside to discover high stud Lawsons Cypress ceilings and a modern open-plan living area that seamlessly flows out to an impressive paved outdoor space. Imagine yourself relaxing on this expansive deck, captivated by the breathtaking views of the Coromandel Ranges. Flourishing gardens, bountiful fruit trees, and a meticulously maintained lawn complete the picture of idyllic living at The Casa.

Originally built as a shed, The Shouse has been transformed into a remarkably comfortable and inviting dwelling. This versatile space boasts an open-plan living area, a bedroom, a dedicated office space, and even a gymnasium, catering to all your needs. Step outside to a delightful deck and spa pool nestled amidst beautiful garden surrounds, the perfect spot to unwind after a day of exploration.

The Cottage: A Classic Transformed

The Cottage, the original building on The Hill, has been extensively renovated to offer modern living spaces while retaining its timeless charm. Enjoy a dedicated outdoor entertaining area, all surrounded by the captivating beauty of the established gardens and native bush. A substantial viewing deck offers stunning panoramas overlooking the Lakes Resort International Golf Course, adding another layer of visual appeal. Whether you envision this space as a haven for family visits or a source of income through Air BnB, The Cottage presents endless possibilities.

Beyond the Dwellings: A Celebration of Nature

The true magic of The Hill unfolds beyond the walls of the dwellings. Imagine yourself surrounded by native New Zealand bush, teeming with established Kauri, Rimu, Totara, Kowhai trees, and a variety of ferns. Immaculate lawns and beautifully landscaped gardens create a sense of serene elegance, further enhanced by a substantial orchard overflowing with citrus, pip, and stone fruit varieties.
