Description:

Located in the heart of Madrid's vibrant Centro district, Plaza Santa Ana is an iconic open space located in the charming Barrio de Cortes. This emblematic place is a perfect fusion of leisure and culture, which captures the unique essence of Madrid.~~Considered a mandatory stop for any visitor who wants to truly experience the essence of the Spanish capital, the Plaza de Santa Ana has a history and beauty that distinguish it. It is said that without a visit to this square, one cannot claim to have truly explored the city.~~This space has gained renewed importance thanks to the extensive remodeling of the nearby Plaza de Canalejas and its proximity to the emblematic Puerta del Sol. Plaza Santa Ana is a cultural oasis within the Barrio de las Letras, an area rich in literary history and artistic.~~The building that dominates the square has an architecture that blends historical elements with modern comforts. With a total of 1,600 m<sup>2</sup> of construction, its main use is residential, although various alternatives for tertiary, cultural and accommodation use are also contemplated. Currently, it works as a fully equipped educational center, which meets all the requirements demanded by the corresponding ministry and has successfully passed inspections and technical evaluations.~~The property for sale covers the entire building, except for the premises on the ground floor, an apartment on the fourth floor and a storage room. This includes the first, second, third and fourth floors, except for one floor and a storage room. Availability is without charges or tenants at the time of signing the public deed of sale, which provides a unique opportunity to acquire a piece of the history and culture of Madrid.~~The price of this exclusive property is €13,500,000, a reflection of the historical, cultural and strategic value of this privileged location in Plaza Santa Ana.~~LIVE LIFE WHERE THEY GIVE YOU LIFE~
