Description:

Located just a few kilometres from the heart of the historic centre of Bagnoregio, this exquisite stone farmhouse offers the perfect fusion of traditional charm and contemporary elegance. Surrounded by lush greenery and featuring a private swimming pool, this property presents an exceptional opportunity to own a refined countryside retreat.

This beautifully restored farmhouse (165 sq.m.) immediately captivates with its timeless facade and impeccable design. Set within a meticulously landscaped 700 sq.m. garden, the residence exudes a sense of serenity and understated luxury. Every detail, both inside and out, has been curated to celebrate the property's original character while incorporating modern comforts.

The interiors are a harmonious blend of authenticity and sophistication. Exposed wooden beams, terracotta ceilings, and natural stone walls contrast beautifully with warm-toned flooring and soft, ambient lighting. Light is a key design element throughout the home, flooding each space and highlighting the craftsmanship of the materials. The house is composed of:

Ground Floor: Custom kitchen with small fireplace and dining space, with large window overlooking the garden, pantry and utility access, sitting room with fireplace, master bedroom with en-suite bathroom (shower and bathtub).

First Floor: Master bedroom, 2 medium-sized bedrooms, bathroom with walk-in shower

Ground floor (only with external access): Traditional taverna with vaulted ceilings and a period stone fireplace, there is also a kitchenette, bathroom, wine cellar carved from tuff stone, garage/storage area (60 sq.m.)

Outdoor Living:

The exterior spaces have been designed to maximize relaxation and outdoor enjoyment. The centerpiece is a pristine swimming pool with a solarium and lounge area. Wooden pergolas offer shaded spaces to dine al fresco while taking in the picturesque surroundings.
