Description:

Architect-Designed, Multi-Level Retreat with Pool and Privacy on 3.8 Acres

Nestled in the serene countryside near the picturesque villages of Moncarapacho and Santa Catarina da Fonte do Bispo in East Algarve, this stunning contemporary villa is a rare architectural gem. Designed by acclaimed French architect Erik Korchinsky, the home blends modern loft-style living with the tranquillity of rural Portugal.

Architectural Elegance Meets Natural Beauty

This multi-level, semi-loft style home features a spacious and fluid layout with an abundance of natural light, high ceilings, and large windows that frame panoramic views of the surrounding landscape. The thoughtful use of split levels and ceiling heights creates an impressive sense of space, while still maintaining cozy, liveable zones throughout the house.

Interior Highlights - See plan

Open-plan kitchen, dining area, and living room with direct views of the garden and countryside
Two guest bedrooms or family rooms on the East wing, sharing a stylish bathroom
Master suite upstairs with a large bedroom, private dressing room, en-suite, and private terrace overlooking the pool and land

Entrance hall with cloakroom and laundry, open to the upper level
Internal access to garage on a slightly lower level for convenience and security

Outdoor Living & Natural Landscape

Situated at the end of a quiet dirt track, this private country estate offers complete seclusion. The low-maintenance garden surrounding the house is equipped with a semi-automatic irrigation system, while the majority of the 3.8 acres (15,000+ m²) of land remains in its natural, wild state ideal for nature lovers and those seeking peace and space.

Enjoy mature dry fruit trees, native flora, and a small seasonal stream bordering the southern edge of the property, adding to the villas rustic charm.
