Description:

Set on a generous, private corner plot in one of Wynyard's most peaceful cul-de-sacs, Tulip Close is a substantial 5 bedroom home that combines scale, finish and setting in equal measure. Built by Taylor Wimpey and significantly upgraded by the current owners, it offers over 2,000 sq ft of flexible, family-oriented space - designed to work as well on a busy Monday morning as it does for weekend entertaining.

The layout is confidently configured from the outset. A wide hallway sets the tone, leading to a large rear lounge with French doors opening directly onto the south-facing garden. Light, calm and well-proportioned, it's a space that adapts with the seasons. At the front, a formal dining room and dedicated study provide additional flexibility, ideal for hybrid working, multi-generational living or quiet evenings away from the main hub.

The kitchen/dining space is at the rear of the house, connecting directly to the garden and patio. With quartz worktops, integrated appliances and room to dine, relax and host, this is the part of the home that truly elevates day-to-day living. A separate utility room keeps clutter out of sight, while ambient lighting and crisp finishes complete the space with purpose and polish.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom enjoys open views and a private en-suite, while Bedroom 2 also benefits from its own en-suite, perfect for older children, guests or live-in relatives. Three further double bedrooms share a well-appointed family bathroom, all finished with a consistent level of quality throughout.

Outside, the landscaped rear garden is private, south-facing and thoughtfully designed. A full-width patio, raised borders and architectural lighting create distinct zones for entertaining, play and downtime, while the addition of a fully insulated garden room—complete with power, lighting and bi-fold doors - offers year-round usability as a gym, office or retreat.

To the front, the wide driveway and detached double garage provide parking for multiple vehicles and reinforce the sense of space throughout. With no passing traffic and a strong local community, the setting offers all the benefits of Wynyard's wider lifestyle - woodland walks, local amenities, security and easy access - within a quieter, more private location.

For buyers seeking a high-calibre home in a mature and established setting, Tulip Close offers a rare opportunity to secure exactly that; finished, functional and ready to enjoy.
