Ala - Historic silk town in the heart of Trentino

Ala is a charming small town in southern Trentino, picturesquely nestled between the Lessinian Alps and the Adige Valley. With its strategic location on the historic Brenner route, just a few kilometers from the freeway exit, Ala ideally combines peace and nature with easy accessibility - both towards Trento and Verona.

The town looks back on a rich history, which was characterized by the flourishing silk production, especially in the 17th and 18th centuries. Magnificent aristocratic palaces, narrow streets and historic town houses still bear witness to this glorious era. The old town, which is one of the best-preserved historical centers in Trentino and regularly hosts cultural events and music festivals, is particularly worth a visit.

Ala is surrounded by a diverse natural landscape: rolling hills, vineyards, olive groves and extensive forests invite you to go on hikes, bike tours and excursions. The nearby Lessini Mountains Nature Park and the Parco Naturale del Monte Baldo offer countless opportunities for nature lovers and sports enthusiasts.

Despite its quiet location, Ala offers a good infrastructure with stores, restaurants, schools and a train station with direct connections to Trento and Verona. Lake Garda, the Folgaria ski resort and Verona airport are all less than an hour away.

Ala is a place for people who appreciate authentic Italian flair, closeness to nature and quality of life - a real insider tip in Trentino.
