Description:

Historic premises for commercial use, central location, for sale in Montepulciano, Siena. In the picturesque tangle of alleys of the renowned historical center of Montepulciano, this commercial property, once the cellar of one of the most famous noble palaces in the town, offers an incredible surface area of 206 sq mt/2217 sq ft divided into various rooms, guaranteeing sufficient space to carry out any business project. Characterized by a central and convenient parking location with a view of the main street, it is perfect for attracting an extensive local and tourist clientele. The environment is fascinating and represents what is expected from the realities of the Tuscan hinterland. A main room with exposed fifteenth-century beams and fireplace, a cellar with vaults and terracotta floors that can be accessed from a picturesque entrance make the property perfect for catering, be it a restaurant, a pub, a cocktail bar, but above all, a luxury cellar in the heart of the city of Nobile wine. A more unique than rare opportunity to create a successful business project in one of the towns with the most remarkable tourist flow in the province of Siena.
