Description:
Garage: 1

Lovely unique property located in a very peaceful street in the newer part of Olvera , a couple of minutes stroll from all amenities , including health center , supermarkets, shops and restaurants.

The small facade is beautifully enhanced by climbing plants that also give shade to the private parking space .

This facade gives no clue that what lies behind is spacious perfectly presented 2 bedroom home with its own pool and a myriad of outside spaces.

The accommodation is all on one level and wraps around the large courtyard which is where the pool is located .

Entering you have a lounge room with beamed ceilings , a wood burning stove and air conditioning, a half wall separates the rustic style kitchen which has ample storage and counter space .

To the rear of the kitchen two steps lead down in to the first of two suites , a double bedroom with en-suite shower room and a walk in wardrobe .

Back into the lounge and a doorway leads into a wide hallway area which has windows and doors leading out to the pool patio and gives access to the family bathroom which is beautifully finished with marble tile on the walls , a walk-in shower with pebble effect flooring , and niches for your shower gels etc , a sink and loo complete this bathroom .At the end of the hall is the master suite , a spacious bedroom with full bathroom and a walk in wardrobe, a beautiful arched window brings in light and views over the pool . Out to the very private pool courtyard with plenty of space for loungers and a built bench for seating , the pool is 4 meters by 5 and has waterfall feature at one end , the pool pump is located below the patio area and accessed via a hatch in the floor of the patio .

From here a gate leads you through to the patio gardens , set over various levels , to the right there is a very large room which houses a bbq kitchen , the laundry area and has storage space too , a door leads out to a stone clad terrace area to the rear , which over looks the beautifully planted terraced style gardens . A huge Lenon tree shades another large patio area which also has gate to give access back to the pool courtyard . Steps from below the lemon tree take you up to a roof terrace with some nice views .

Finally if all this isn't enough ! There is another lower level of space which has garage doors back to the street so you can pull a car in should you wish to, within this area there is another good sized room currently used as space for bird cages but it would make an ideal home office too , and there is a storage shed too !

This home offers everything you could need in permanent or holiday home and more besides , it's full of charm and character and finished to a great standard . This home gives you elements you usually only find in a country property whilst being in the heart of things .
