The Sofia Resort Complex is located in Ravda, about 300 meters from the largest beach in Ravda, South Beach. This is a modern and fairly new building, located not far from the center of the resort. The complex consists of one low-rise building, which creates a cozy and harmonious atmosphere. There is a swimming pool, a recreation area, and security on the territory of Sofia. All apartments are equipped with everything necessary for a relaxing holiday with the whole family.

Ravda is a resort village on the Bulgarian Black Sea coast, known for its ecologically clean beaches with fine golden sand, as well as a calm sea with a gentle entrance. The village is popular among young people and families with children due to its well-developed sports infrastructure, opportunities for water sports and affordable prices compared to neighboring resorts. The proximity to historic Nessebar and Sunny Beach allows you to combine beach holidays with cultural and entertainment programs.

Geographical location

It is located 5 km from Nessebar and Sunny Beach, 30 km from Burgas Airport.

Beaches and the sea

Ecologically clean beaches with fine golden sand.

The sea is calm, with a gentle slope, ideal for children.

The beaches are equipped with umbrellas, deck chairs and lifeguard towers.

Placement

A wide range of accommodation options: from family hotels and guest houses to private apartments and villas.

Entertainment and sports

Extensive opportunities for water sports such as windsurfing, water skiing and rowing.

Nightclubs and discos attract young people.

A lunapark with attractions and carousels for children.

Infrastructure

There are many restaurants, eateries and shops in the village.

There are medical centers, a post office and a library.
