Description:

Positioned in the highly regarded Quinta da Pegada residential area just a short walk from Tavira's historic town centre, this exceptionally well-maintained 4-bedroom villa offers spacious, turnkey living in one of the East Algarves most desirable residential areas. Popular with both Portuguese and international residents, the area is known for its tranquillity, quality homes and convenient location. The villa is presented in an immaculate condition and features an unusually generous internal layout. Expansive, light-filled reception rooms create a welcoming atmosphere for both everyday living and entertaining. The ground floor includes a large open-plan living and dining area, a fully equipped modern kitchen, and a separate study or optional fourth bedroom. On the upper level, three comfortable bedrooms each benefit from private en-suite bathrooms, with the principal bedroom and rooftop terrace enjoying lovely views towards the sea. Outdoor living is a highlight of this property. The rear terrace offers a substantial, private space with a shaded lounge area perfect for dining, entertaining, or relaxing with family and friends. There is also ample room to install an above-ground pool or create additional recreational zones. The spacious rooftop terrace provides a second outdoor living area with panoramic views and further potential as a peaceful retreat. Completing the property is a versatile basement garage of 118 m² suitable for secure parking, storage, a home gym, or games room, enhancing the villa's appeal as a practical and stylish full-time residence or high-quality holiday home. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a move-in-ready villa offering generous proportions, flexible living, and stunning outdoor spaces in one of Tavira's most sought-after residential locations.

TAVIRA

Set on either side of the meandering Rio Gilão and affectionately known as The Venice of The Algarve, Tavira is arguably the Algarve's most charming town. The old Roman bridge, the ruins of a hilltop castle and an astonishing 37 churches with the oldest dating back to the Middle Ages, are among many of Tavira's historic attractions. An enticing collection of restaurants, cafes, bars and shops makes it the perfect sunny Portuguese destination or as an excellent base for exploring the Algarves eastern reaches. Tavira is ideal for wandering and exploring the ancient city with its many cobblestone streets, hidden green gardens and tree lined squares. There's a small, active fishing port and a modern market with Tavira also being the launching point for the stunning, unspoilt beaches of Ilha de Tavira.

BEACHES

There are several great beaches near Tavira. The coast in this area is great for long seaside walks and for bathing, as its waters are warmer than anywhere else in the Algarve.

Ilha de Cabanas: This is an island in front of the town Cabanas de Tavira, with a spectacular long and narrow beach. The sand is white and the island feels like paradise. Great for long beach walks.

Ilha de Tavira (also known as Tavira Island): Is famous for being one of the best beaches near Tavira. The beach is quite sandy and the sand is almost white. Tavira Island stretches for approximately 11 kilometres and is just 3 kilometres south from the town of Tavira. There are restaurants and the beach also holds a Blue Flag, showing the quality of the beach. It is a great destination for a day trip.

Praia do Barril: Accessible on foot or by train, this beach is known for its bizarre anchor cemetery with over 100 anchors in front of the beach. The anchors were from the tuna fishing community, which disappeared when the bluefin tuna moved to other waters. The beach itself is also very big and also incredibly beautiful.

RESTAURANTS

There are many top rated restaurants in Tavira. If you like food, you won't be disappointed here. From local cuisine to fine dining, you can find it all in the area.
