This property stands out for its high-quality finishes, meticulously crafted both inside and out, featuring refined materials and quality details. The spaces are arranged according to a rational and fluid layout, enhanced by parquet flooring in excellent condition and walls finished with subtle and durable tones. The double-glazed windows and premium doors ensure excellent thermal and acoustic insulation, contributing to maximum living comfort. The entire condominium, recently renovated with the 110% bonus, has achieved energy class A+. Common areas, including the swimming pool, are also maintained with constant care, reflecting a harmonious and high-level environment. Regular maintenance of systems and structures preserves both efficiency and overall elegance over time.
