Description:

Nestled in the heart of the Haute Ville district in Granville, a 7-room house of approximately 196 m2 built in 1688 comprising:

- Ground floor: an entrance hall of approximately 20 m2, two workshops, and a courtyard (a rare find in this area).
- First floor: there is a large living room (kitchen open to the living room) facing south with a balcony and a bedroom with a private bathroom.
- Second floor: you can access two other large bedrooms and a bathroom with toilet.
- Above: an attic will allow you to store belongings.
- Basement: a cellar.

The property will require some finishing work for certain rooms and renovation for the workshop areas in order to convert them into living rooms.

Through independent access, a completely renovated apartment includes: a kitchenette opening onto a living room, a bathroom with toilet, and a sleeping area.

It allows for the reception of guests while ensuring their complete independence; rental income can also be considered.

In a quiet neighbourhood, the house is close to all amenities: it is less than a minute from shops and two minutes from schools.

Schools of all levels are located within a 10-minute walk. In terms of transport, there is the train station less than 10 minutes away by car.

The Select cinema awaits you just a few minutes away for your leisure time, as well as a tennis court.

There are also restaurants, shops, bakeries, two supermarkets, a post office, and three grocery stores.

Finally, the Cours Jonville market livens up the area every Saturday.

The department of Manche is in Lower Normandy and is bordered with Calvados, Orne, Mayenne and Ile-et-Vilaine. The English Channel in the west, north and north-west coastlines makes getting here to its many ports very easy from the UK. There is also an airport in Caen and many others are easily accessible in the surrounding regions such as Rennes airport.

History is all over the department through its museums and heritage, discovering the local traditions and culture as well as Chateaux, religious monuments, water mills, maritime sites and gardens is easy to do.

The biggest 'must-do' is a visit to Mont Saint Michel.

Tourism plays a major role in the economy of the department which is fine because there is so much to see and do.

We at Cle France specialise in Property for sale in France through our network of Agents and French Registered High Street Estate Agents. We have sold thousands of houses for sale in France over the years and have helped many find and buy their dream home in France.

We can also help you with everything to do with buying a house in France including getting a mortgage, organising currency exchange, renovation advice, property surveys, planning permission, French translation, opening a bank account and everything to do with French property sales.

All our prices are quoted as FAI (agency fees included) unless otherwise stated and 'notaire' fees are around 7% (on average) but feel free to ask us for an exact amount on any particular French property for sale you are interested in.

Indeed please feel free to use the 'MAKE AN ENQUIRY' tab above to ask us any questions you have about buying a property in France. Our UK based enquiry office and staff will guide you through the entire buying process step by step from your first contact right up to taking ownership and beyond, all free of charge.

So when you buy through Cle France you can be confident that you are paying no more than the standard commission rates you would pay anyway, but you have the added benefit of a bi-lingual support team.
