Your perfect Spanish retreat with green space and exceptional versatility.

The areas of Urb La Marina and the neighbouring Urb La Escuera, both falling under the municipality of San Fulgencio, form one of the largest and most cosmopolitan residential communities on the Southern Costa Blanca. San Fulgencio itself retains a traditional Spanish village heart, with a history rooted in the 18th-century draining of the Segura River marshlands for agriculture, offering historical sites like its 18th-century Parish Church and a Municipal Archaeological Museum showcasing Iberian artifacts. The urbanizations, however, are a modern haven predominantly populated by a diverse European community, offering a relaxed tourist life centered on convenience and the excellent Mediterranean climate. Nearby cities like Guardamar del Segura, known for its extensive sand dunes and pine forests leading to Blue Flag beaches, and the vibrant city of Torrevieja are easily accessible. For shopping, major centres such as Habaneras and La Zenia Boulevard are just a short drive away. Nature lovers can explore the hiking and biking trails in the protected Salt Lakes of La Mata and Torrevieja or the El Hondo Natural Park. Golf enthusiasts are well-catered for, with prestigious courses like La Marquesa in Ciudad Quesada and La Finca being within a 10km radius. The area is highly self-sufficient with excellent year-round amenities, making it a desirable location for both holidays and permanent residency.
