Description:

2 bedroom apartment in need of refurbishment, located in a central area of Lagos, with all amenities close by, while being in a very quiet street, with little passage.

It has a living room with open kitchen, 2 bathrooms and 2 bedrooms, and an ideal space to make an office area, a library, a games area, or a closet, for example.

The patio has been closed to increase the useful space of the house but part of the roof can be removed to return to outdoor space.

The project that was designed for this covered "outdoor" area was not completely realized. The work was started but unfortunately it was not completed. Therefore, it is sold in its current, unfinished state.

Overall, enjoying a good living area, and recognizing its great potential, this can be an excellent investment for a holiday home or for profitability when the work is finished.

I invite you to come and see for yourself this atypical property, which despite its peculiar characteristics can become a very welcoming home.

We are available for more information and to schedule a visit.
