Description:

Set in the quiet surroundings of Luz de Tavira, this newly built four-bedroom villa combines clean contemporary lines with generous outdoor space and open views stretching towards the sea. Designed to maximise natural light, the property features full-height glazing, an infinity pool overlooking the garden and a rooftop terrace capturing panoramic scenery.

The interior layout is spread across three levels and includes an open-plan living and dining area with a fully fitted kitchen, creating a practical and welcoming hub for everyday living. One en-suite bedroom sits on the ground floor for added convenience, while the first floor offers three further suites, each with its own balcony and countryside and sea views.

Practical comforts have been integrated throughout, including air conditioning, solar heating, underfloor heating in selected areas, and a lift connecting the basement, main floors and rooftop. Outside, the villa offers several terraces, a landscaped garden and a stylish pool area designed for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the natural surroundings.

With a large 6,550 m² plot, modern architecture and a strong appeal as both a full-time residence and a secure investment in Tavira, this villa balances privacy, comfort and contemporary design. Viewings are encouraged to appreciate the quality, scale and setting of this new home. Faro airport is located 35 minutes away.
