Description:

Old "Relais de Poste located in the heart of a village with local shops (bakery, restaurant, garage) and schools, just 7 km from Ruffec, a town with all amenities. This property, comprising two houses, offers great potential for renovation or conversion (subject to necessary permissions). The main house comprises an entrance hall opening onto a fitted kitchen, a bedroom, a living room and a hallway leading to a separate toilet, a dressing room and a bathroom/shower room. This hallway also provides direct access to an adjoining barn. An outbuilding adjoining the barn, currently used as a workshop, offers great potential for extension or conversion depending on your plans (subject to the necessary permissions). The second house offers, on the ground floor, an entrance hall with a functional bread oven, a lounge and a toilet. Upstairs, a mezzanine overlooking the living room leads to a landing and a room used as a bedroom. The mezzanine also gives access to two large attics that could be converted, subject to the necessary permissions. Both homes can be fitted with a heating system, giving you the freedom to choose a solution that suits your needs. An old house in need of renovation (subject to necessary permissions), comprising two rooms with period fireplaces, provides direct access to a pretty, fully enclosed garden planted with trees. To the front of the house, a courtyard with a well completes this charming property. Worth a visit!
