Description:

Avenidas Novas is located in Lisbon's most desirable residential neighbourhood. It is close to the Gulbenkian Museum, El Corte Inglés shopping centre, and the University of Lisbon and very well connected by all means of public transportation. Constructed in the 1970s, this former office building is now given a new life through the rehabilitation project by the renowned Portuguese architect firm RMS.

The residential development incorporates 17 stylish apartments, offering seven different typologies, with areas ranging from 58 m2 to 133 m2.

Large balconies and terraces with beautiful views offer the privilege of relaxing, refreshing, and enjoying the best of life!
