An Authentic Cycladic Estate with Rare Expansion Potential Ano Mera, Mykonos | €630,000 The property is located in the traditional heart of Mykonos and consists of a 120 sq.m. residence offering a rare combination of heritage, privacy, and future development potential. Situated in the peaceful residential area of Ano Mera, the house is set on a private plot of 400 sq.m., providing a level of space and seclusion that is increasingly difficult to find in the Cyclades. The residence currently consists of two well-maintained and light-filled apartments. Designed in harmony with local Cycladic architecture, the interiors feature decorative polished cement floors and traditional wooden frames. The layout includes a total of three bedrooms, two bathrooms, two kitchens, and two welcoming living areas. The property is in excellent structural condition and holds an Energy Class C certification. In addition to its current charm, the property offers a significant investment and development opportunity. The 400 sq.m. plot benefits from a substantial remaining building factor, allowing for legal construction on most of the remaining land. In an area where new building permits are highly restricted, this unused building capacity represents a strong long-term investment opportunity. The property allows for the creation of a unified luxury villa, a private swimming pool, or additional guest suites. For buyers seeking an immediate island residence, the property is offered as a turnkey solution. It includes unique traditionally designed furniture that reflects the character and elegance of Mykonos.
