Description:

THIS PROPERTY IS NOW RESERVED

Located in the quaint village of Montecorto just 20 minutes from historic Ronda we bring you this fabulous spacious home .

Set over looking the main thoroughfare of this wonderful white village this home offers move in ready condition with 2 well appointed bathrooms and three spacious bedrooms.

The ground floor comprises a generous lounge room which has a pellet burner and ceiling fan , off this to the left is another large reception room set up as formal dining and lounge , both these rooms have double glazed windows over looking the street .

Across the lounge through an open arch with nice brick detail is the very spacious kitchen , the kitchen is fully fitted with base and upper units with integrated appliances including oven , microwave and dishwasher , a handy under stairs cupboard houses a fridge freezer too , off the kitchen is well appointed utility room once again with fitted cabinets , a sink , washing machine and the electric water heater . A full bathroom completes this floor , it's fully tiled has a large walking shower , wall hung vanity with storage and a loo.

On the first floor there is a full bathroom complete with large walking shower , vanity with storage heated towel rail and a loo plus a very handy built in cupboard .

Then you have three very good sized bedrooms all with double glazed wood effect French doors leading out to the balcony which runs the length of the facade with a good sized terrace area to one end , there is also a store room here too .

The views from the house are lovely , looking out over the roof tops and to the green hills and mountains that surround the village.

If you are looking for a wonderful family home from home or indeed a full time home set in an authentic Andalucian white village with no work required then you must see this home in person !

Montecorto offers a fair selection of amenities , mini markets , bank , bars a restaurant and a wonderful pool which is filled with the natural spring water the village is blessed with in abundance , plant filled streets and easy access to lovely hiking trails through the pine forest are all here and you have the bonus of wonderful Ronda just a short drive away .
