Description:

A quirky house in a picturesque corner of the old town , near one of the main plazas this is the perfect home for a couple .

having under gone recent improvements it is move in ready .

up the zigzag street the facade does not give any clue of what lies beyond .

entering you have a small entrance hall with glass and wrought iron door , then a cosy lounge diner beyond which is a fully fitted kitchen .

upstairs you enter directly into the main bedroom which is of a good size and has a window overlooking the street , from here a hallway leads to a well appointed tiled bathroom.

furrger along the hallway a few steps lead to a landing area with access to the patio terrace which has a higher level with a useful outbuilding currently housing which could easily convert to a garden room .

back inside and Aldo off the previously mentioned landing there is a small room currently used for storage but could be a home office or single bedroom .

on the top level there is another bedroom which is currently set up as a lounge and off this a laundry room which the current owner also uses as a walking wardrobe.

At the other end of this level is another good sized room with wood clad ceiling , once again this is used as a store room but would make another bedroom.
