Description:

Espiche Golf Village is an exclusive golf and lifestyle destination set in the heart of the Western Algarve. Surrounded by rolling countryside and a protected natural landscape, these premium building plots offer privacy, tranquillity, and a strong connection to nature just a short drive from the historic town of Lagos and the Atlantic coast.

These four plots are central to the resort, in an area that will only be accessible to residents, on an elevated area with unobstructed views to the West, possibly offering some of the most fantastic sunsets that the development will provide.

With T3 villas starting from 560,000 with plot sizes from 1,295.37 m² to 1,846.71 m² allowing for a build area between 320 m² and 360 m².

There are two further prime plots available located next to the entrance to the development that offer spectacular views of the golf course.

With T4 villas starting from 775,000 with plot sizes from 1,714.52 m² to 2,613.83 m² allowing for a build area between 360 m² and 470 m².

Each plot is thoughtfully positioned within the planned village, allowing for contemporary architectural design that blends seamlessly with the environment. Owners will benefit from beautiful open views, generous plot sizes, and a low-density development concept that prioritizes space, sustainability, and long-term value.

Espiches design philosophy emphasizes sustainability. Rather than a typical resort built around large hotels and residential blocks, the golf village is developed to preserve and enhance the natural environment with respect for local ecosystems, biodiversity, and the rural Algarves character. Espiche Golf Village is home to an acclaimed 18-hole championship golf course, a welcoming clubhouse with restaurant and terrace, and a peaceful, community-focused atmosphere. These plots are ideal for both permanent residences and luxury holiday homes.

Whether you are seeking a serene Algarve lifestyle, a secure investment, or a bespoke home overlooking one of the regions most natural golf courses, plots at Espiche Golf Village offer a unique blend of exclusivity, location, and quality of life.
