This charming house is located in Pleubian (22610), offering a peaceful and friendly living environment less than 500 metres from Pors Rand beach. This Breton coastal town is renowned for the Sillon de Talbert, a rare natural landmark that can be seen from the upper floor of the house. This 106 m² house, built in 1974 on a 791 m² plot, has been renovated and offers a functional layout over two levels. On the ground floor, there is a fitted and equipped open-plan kitchen, a separate WC, a master suite with a shower room, and a spacious, bright living room with direct access to the terrace and the above-ground swimming pool. Upstairs, a large landing that can be used as a home office and three beautiful bedrooms provide all the necessary space.

An attached garage with a loft completes the property.
