Two Homes for the Price of One in the Tropics

Casa Lux is located in the colonial city of Granada, Nicaragua, the oldest American city founded in 1524. This beautifully kept home is only one mile from Lake Nicaragua (Cocibolca), the largest lake in Central America and the second-largest lake in Latin America. This amazing property is in the heart of historic Granada, just two blocks from the central park and the tourist centre of La Calzada. The main shopping street, Calle Atravesada, is just three blocks away and an open market is nearby. The property is conveniently located to everything without all the noise.

Don't miss your chance to get two homes for the price of one in the tropics! This is a turn-key home. Casa Lux (short for 'Deluxe' or 'Luxury') was custom-built and designed to offer Western comfort and style. Discover this beautiful, modern-designed house, where comfort meets elegance in every detail. It is sold fully furnished - all you need is to bring your luggage, and you will be home.

This two-story home is set in a quiet cul-de-sac for ultimate enjoyment while just steps to the heart of everything. The home can accommodate up to 12 people comfortably (six downstairs and six upstairs) - perfect for an investor or homeowner. The two-story structure has separate entrances; on each floor, there is a laundry room and full kitchen with granite countertops, modern appliances, garbage disposal, dishes/cookware, and an eating area with dining table and chairs. The first-floor design includes a living room, guest bathroom, two bedrooms with en suite bathrooms with hot water, built-in closets, small desks, and air conditioning.

The second floor features an open concept design with a living room, office, and a large bedroom with a luxurious en suite bathroom tiled from floor to ceiling. Upstairs also includes sliding doors with screens opening out to a covered terrace in the back with patio furniture to include an umbrella. The terrace provides views of the cathedral and Mombacho mountain. There is also a covered balcony at the front side of the house with a bistro set perfect for enjoying your favourite morning beverage as well as looking over the neighbourhood.

Additional features of the home include custom wrought iron designs and decorative work on the windows and doors; a roof-top potable water reserve tank with pump, and on-demand hot water heaters.

About the Area

Granada, one of Nicaragua's oldest cities, is a captivating destination steeped in history and colonial charm. Located on the shores of Lake Nicaragua, this vibrant city offers a unique blend of natural beauty, cultural heritage, and modern amenities.

The city's historic center is a maze of colorful colonial buildings, cobblestone streets, and charming plazas. The iconic Cathedral of Granada, with its yellow facade and twin bell towers, dominates the skyline. Other notable landmarks include the San Francisco Convent, the Central Park, and the Casa de los Leones.

Granada's strategic location on Lake Nicaragua provides opportunities for water-based activities, such as kayaking, paddleboarding, and boat tours. Visitors can also explore the nearby volcanic islands, including the stunning Isla de Ometepe, which offers hiking trails, hot springs, and pristine beaches.

For those seeking adventure, the Masaya Volcano National Park is a short drive away. This active volcano offers breathtaking views, hiking trails, and the opportunity to witness the power of nature.
