Description:

In the heart of Bacelo neighbourhood, Évora, you will find this unique property, designed for those who value space, independence and versatility. Set on a generous 1,200 m² plot, this property stands out for comprising two fully independent 3-bedroom houses, a rare and highly sought-after solution on the market.

Each home offers complete privacy, making this property ideal for two families, for those who wish to live close to relatives while maintaining full independence, or for buyers looking for a solid investment opportunity, whether for long-term rental or a combination of private residence and rental income.

The outdoor area is a true invitation to enjoy space and tranquillity. The land includes a borehole and water tank, ensuring water autonomy and excellent potential for a garden, vegetable patch or leisure areas. The annex with kitchen adds flexibility and is perfect for family gatherings, entertaining friends or supporting outdoor living. A garage provides additional comfort and everyday convenience.

Located in a well-established, quiet residential area with easy access, this property allows you to enjoy Évora's quality of life, close to shops, services, schools and the historic city centre, without giving up space or privacy.

A property that adapts to different life projects, where the potential is as generous as the land that surrounds it. Whether for living, investing or both, this is a solid opportunity in one of Évora's most desirable neighbourhoods.
