Description:

REDUCED in price - In the heart of Averan, a secluded village in the Hautes-Pyrenees, this renovated former barn embodies the perfect blend of authenticity and contemporary comfort.

Behind its characterful walls:

- Ground floor: reveals a beautiful living room with an open-plan kitchen, extending onto a bright conservatory offering additional space bathed in natural light. The crackling flame of the wood-burning stove enhances this traditional ambiance, ideal for long winter evenings.

- Upstairs: a spacious bedroom and a shower room create a warm and adaptable level, enhanced by skylights and a dormer window that accentuate the building's charm.

Recent upgrades further enhance comfort:

- Nailed slate roof
- Daikin reversible air-to-air heat pump (remote controllable)
- Recently installed micro-wastewater treatment plant.

- Outside: a private terrace, small garden, carport, and 9 m2 woodshed complete this rare property, ideal as a primary residence or a charming secondary home.

A true haven of peace in a sought-after area.

The department of Hautes-Pyrenees is the southern-most department of the Midi Pyrenees region, its capital being the beautiful town of Tarbes. The department has a very interesting geography as two small sections belonging geographically to Aquitaine are administratively part of the Hautes-Pyrenees.

The department is split into two very different landscapes: mountains to the south covering half of the department, valleys to the north where the majority of the towns and villages are.

The economy of the department is mainly agricultural and tourism. Inside Midi Pyrenees, smaller areas have traditional names such as the Comminges (east of Toulouse) or the famous Gascony.

Hautes-Pyrenees is a very nice area to settle and one area to look out for (not very well known) is the Baronnies, a set of 30 villages which decided to preserve their rural traditions. An unspoilt area, they represent the rural idyll for anybody in search for absolute peace, authenticity and rest.
