Description:

Just 20 km from Udine, there is this prestigious historical castle for sale, built in 1636 by Count Fabrizio di Colloredo on the Medieval ruins of a stunning Medici-style home. Inspired by the Tuscan style, this property was built to give prestige to one of the most enchanting areas of Friuli. This prestigious estate was for a long time the home of the noble Colloredo family. Between the 1970s and 1980s the building underwent some restorations: majestic and scenographic, the castle today is spread over three levels and measures about 13,900 square meters, characterized by splendid reception rooms with historical furnishings and fireplaces, four opulent bedrooms, and six bathrooms. The interiors of this prestigious house retain incredible finishes, period decorations, as well as incredibly scenographic high vaulted ceilings with precious chandeliers. The estate is in an exclusive and dominant position, surrounded by a splendid Italian garden featuring prestigious hedges and splendid centuries-old trees, the perfect place to relax by taking a walk in this luxuriant nature. The enormous historical prestige of this building and its perfect state of conservation combine with the enchanting beauty of its surroundings in a perfect mix that makes this magnificent estate a truly prestigious home, full of charm and history.
