Description:

Step into a home designed for the way people truly want to live in Baja... easy breezy and connected to the ocean. From the expansive front porch evenings unfold with Pacific sunsets that slow time down. Climb to the rooftop deck and you'll find yourself scanning the horizon for passing whales while the surf breaks in the distance... a soundtrack you'll fall asleep to most nights. The home itself was thoughtfully built for comfort and flexibility. With 3 bedrooms and 2.5 baths it feels intimate and effortless for four yet has the space to welcome family or friends. The single level layout mature landscaping and shaded outdoor living spaces keep life simple and stress free while details like custom woodwork throughout add lasting quality.

Supplements Everyday conveniences are built in AC in the bedrooms for when you need it an outdoor shower after the beach and a detached garage to tuck away your truck boards or toys. Pergolas and breezeways create natural cooling and flow while hurricane shutters whole home generac generator and a large cistern give peace of mind whether you're here full time or part time. And then there's the location quiet yet close to everything that makes Pescadero special. Surf San Pedrito in the morning wander the weekend market at Baja Beans or meet friends for dinner at Hierbabuena. Cerritos is under 10 minutes away Todos Santos just beyond. Casa Ma ana is that rare blend a house that makes daily life easy and a setting that constantly reminds you why you chose Baja in the first place.
