Description:

- This charming one-bedroom apartment is located in the highly sought-after Moabit neighbourhood in Berlin, an area known for its relaxed atmosphere, excellent infrastructure, and proximity to the city's green heart. Set within a beautiful old building, the property combines classic Berlin architecture with a fairly modern interior layout—ideal for urban living with character.

The apartment features a well-proportioned living room, a separate bedroom, a dedicated kitchen, and a separate bathroom. Large windows and high ceilings typical of historic buildings create a bright and airy feel, while modern updates ensure everyday comfort.

City area

Tiergarten-Moabit, in West Berlin, is a family and residential district, with plenty of tourist attractions. The Tiergarten Park, a veritable forest in the city and one of the biggest parks in Berlin, is located between the Brandenburg Gate and the Siegessaule, a column of victory that is reminiscent of that of the Bastille. The park has a huge zoo, as well as several lakes and cafes. Along the avenue of June 17 is held weekly a renowned antiques market, which attracts many Berliners. Close to the Brandenburg Gate is the German Parliament, whose glass dome contrasts with the old building. It is nestled in the heart of an amazing futuristic district on the banks of the River Spree. Behind the park of Tiergarten is located the famous castle of Bellevue, residence of the Chancellor. Well served by several metro lines, Tiergarten provides easy access to other parts of Berlin.
