Garessio – The Pearl of the Maritime Alps

In the heart of the Upper Tanaro Valley, in the province of Cuneo, Garessio is a charming mountain village surrounded by nature, ideally located between the Maritime Alps and the Ligurian Sea, reachable in about 40 minutes.

With its charming medieval historic center, quaint streets, and historic buildings, Garessio retains the authentic atmosphere of a Piedmontese village. The surrounding area offers spectacular landscapes, hiking trails, ski resorts, and numerous outdoor activities, ideal in every season.

Known as the "Pearl of the Maritime Alps," the village is nestled in a green valley where mountains, nature, and tranquility meet, making it a perfect destination for those who want to slow down and enjoy moments of relaxation away from the city.

Thanks to its still affordable real estate prices, Garessio today represents an interesting opportunity for purchasing vacation homes, second homes, or real estate investments for tourist rentals.

Why choose Garessio

Charming medieval village

- Unspoiled nature and Alpine views
- Ligurian sea about 40 minutes away
- Ideal for hiking, skiing, and outdoor activities

- Excellent opportunity for second homes and real estate investments
