Description:
harming & Elegant Interiors, 1250sqft of Space, Gorgeous South Facing Roof Terrace and Great Location

An exceptionally cosy and charming and beautifully presented freehold triplex apartment arranged over three floors, with the rare benefit of its own private entrance and a wonderful south-facing roof terrace. This delightful mid-terraced Victorian home combines classic character with thoughtful modern updates, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout. Entered via its own front door at raised ground floor level, the property opens onto a welcoming hallway which leads to a bright and spacious bay-fronted reception room, complete with high ceilings, period detailing and a beautiful fireplace. To the rear, a well-proportioned dining room connects naturally to a stylish and well-appointed kitchen, providing an excellent space for both everyday living and entertaining. The upper floors offer three comfortable bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom, alongside a beautifully arranged family bathroom and a versatile study/home office. The layout is both practical and elegant, offering excellent flexibility for modern living.

Top floor bedroom also features an en-suite shower room with toilet and handbasin. There are also storage spaces within the eaves recesses. A particular highlight of the property is the superb south-facing roof terrace, a wonderfully private outdoor space filled with natural light throughout the day. Perfect for morning coffee, summer dining or simply relaxing above the rooftops, it provides a rare and highly desirable retreat in this central London location. The property is presented in excellent condition throughout, reflecting careful ownership and a refined sense of style. Period features blend seamlessly with tasteful decorative finishes, giving the home a sense of charm, comfort and understated sophistication.
