Description:

Be captivated by the authentic charm of this traditional stone house, blending character with modern comfort. With a total floor area of 141 m² (100 m² of living space), this house, fully renovated in 2015, offers spacious rooms and a warm atmosphere. Its carefully curated decor, designed by an interior architect, brings harmony and elegance to every space. The living areas have been designed to be accessible for people with reduced mobility (PRM). The house can also be equipped with an elevator, which was planned from the outset. It comprises: 3 bright bedrooms a welcoming and characterful living area and a wood-burning stove that heats the entire house. Adjoining the main house, a second stone building of 72 m² offers significant potential: Creation of a gîte, extension of the main house, rental or family project. Outside, you will enjoy an enclosed garden of approximately 350 m², ideal for relaxing in complete tranquility. The upper floors offer pleasant sea views, adding a touch of escape to this charming property. A rare property, perfect for a primary residence, a second home, or a tourism project. Don't miss out!
