Come and discover this charming village where you will be able to live with comfort and quality of life.

Vila Boim is a small parish located in the municipality of Elvas, in the Alentejo region, near the border with Spain. It is a quiet town, marked by a rural environment and a strong connection to agriculture and livestock, traditional activities in the area.

The village has typical Alentejo characteristics: white houses, quiet streets and a simple and welcoming community life. Throughout its history, it has had strategic importance due to its proximity to the border, especially in periods of conflict such as the War of Restoration.

Today, Vila Boim maintains its traditional character, being an example of the culture and way of life of the Alentejo interior, where tranquility, rural landscape and local traditions predominate.
