Description:

Completely refurbished from scratch, new and ready to move in, this sophisticated 4 bedroom apartment stands out for its exceptional luminosity, large areas and a harmonious distribution that favors comfort, elegance and functionality. Every detail reflects a careful combination of charm and class, complemented by subtle touches of modernity.

The kitchen is fully equipped, designed in detail to meet the demands of a contemporary lifestyle. The property also has double glazing and electric shutters, ensuring high thermal and acoustic comfort.

Inserted in a family building, extremely well maintained, it offers a quiet and distinguished environment. The small balcony provides a pleasant side view of the Tagus River and Cristo Rei, adding a rare and differentiating element.

Located in Campo de Ourique, one of the most typical, authentic and valued neighborhoods in Lisbon, it combines the charm of neighborhood life with a solid offer of good restaurants, modern services, great schools and excellent access, keeping its unique identity intact.

An exclusive opportunity for those looking to experience Lisbon with sophistication, comfort and quality of life.
